

ConfidentialMind and Mia-Platform Partner to Accelerate the Adoption of AI Applications

Milan, 24 May 2025 - ConfidentialMind, a Finnish AI startup providing a software platform for building secure generative AI applications, RAG systems, and AI agents, has officially joined the Mia-Platform Partner Network. This collaboration aims to accelerate the adoption of AI applications by combining ConfidentialMind's generative AI infrastructure with Mia-Platform's agent-based workflow.

"Since our initial meeting with the team at Mia-Platform, it became clear that we share the vision of making AI more accessible. Together, we demonstrate how companies can deploy secure AI applications, LLM models, and agents on their platforms," says Markku Räsänen, CEO of ConfidentialMind. He adds, "Partnering with Mia-Platform is an exciting step for us. We are looking forward to the future where we have deeper integrations between our capabilities to provide an end-to-end secure AI solutions for companies."

"ConfidentialMind and Mia-Platform are both built on microservices and API-based architecture. This is how modern enterprise and government solutions are meant to be built," says Severi Tikkala, CTO of ConfidentialMind. "By combining our generative AI infrastructure with Mia-Platform's agent-based workflow, we're enabling companies to build intelligent business systems. With a cloud-agnostic approach, we give clients the freedom to integrate our platforms where their data is and to move to a new environment when there is a requirement, ensuring maximum data protection, ownership, and sovereignty."

The combined solution empowers organizations to rapidly develop, deploy, and scale intelligent applications that enhance business operations, automate workflows, and improve decision-making. By prioritizing data security, compliance, and architectural flexibility, ConfidentialMind and Mia-Platform deliver enterprise-grade AI capabilities that are ready for mission-critical use cases across industries.

"We are thrilled to welcome ConfidentialMind to the Mia-Platform Partner Network," said Francesco Soncini Sessa, Head of Strategic Alliances at Mia-Platform. "Their expertise in secure generative AI infrastructure complements our vision of bringing intelligent automation to digital platforms. Together, we're enabling businesses to harness the full power of AI while maintaining full control over their data and systems."

CONFIDENTIALMIND

ConfidentialMind is the 2024 Finnish AI Startup of the Year award winner, providing a software platform for building secure generative AI applications, RAG systems, and AI agents in the customer's own environment. With one-click deployment of LLMs, AI systems, and agents, the platform empowers software engineers to build AI solutions quickly without requiring deep AI expertise. The platform is scalable across a variety of sectors such as finance, healthcare, manufacturing, and government. Whether it's providing a generative AI backend, a fast and reliable API for private cloud inference, or enabling service providers to offer generative AI as a service, ConfidentialMind delivers the backbone that removes barriers to enterprise AI adoption.
